

Silas (Ken Southward) of the local militia finds himself a little inebriated thanks to some quick thinking by Lavinia Hoogenboom (Marilyn Bellfontaine) and son Peter (Calvin Quirk) in The Hair of the Dog.

SCOTT ROSTS/STAFF PHOTO

PHOTO BY JENNIFER TURNER

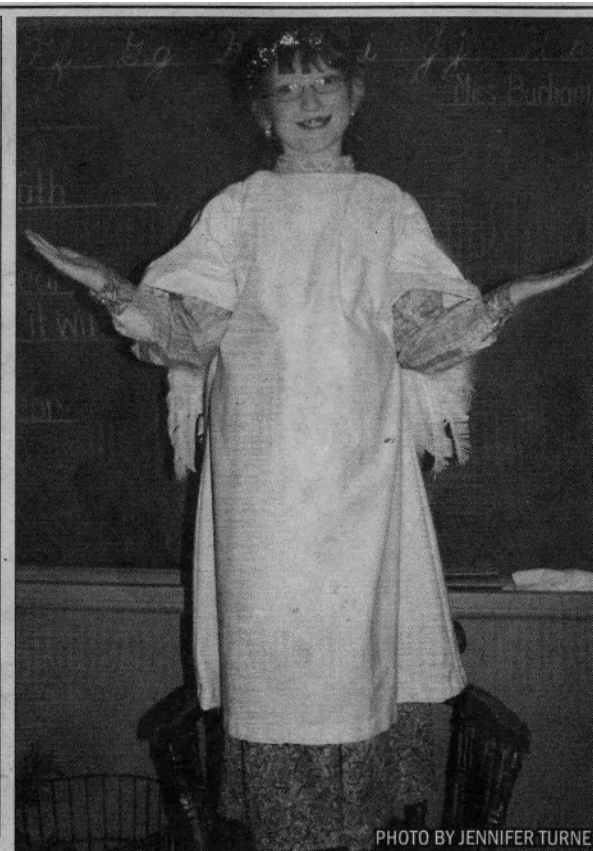

PHOTO BY JENNIFER TURNER

SCOTT ROSTS/STAFF PHOTO

Miss Nettie and Nan's Tea Room is more than just a stop for a warm drink and snack. Miss Nettie (Diana Bujas) and her team serve up a story, too, and this year helped Celebrate an 1800's Christmas season.

Emily Fretz (Sarah Nicolson) was one of the children performing The Meaning of Christmas, the fifth play, which took place in the old school house at the Jordan Museum.

From left, Clark (Kristiaan Hansen), Isabella Snure (Sharon Fecik) and Francise (Samantha Sargent) work in the post Office – the hub of information in the 1850's.